FOREWORD

The Crescent Education Society, New Delhi, was established and registered on May 18, 1977, with a view to promote and establish educational institutions particularly for the children of minorities and weaker sections of the society. The aim of these institutions would be to produce citizens having scientific, progressive and secular outlook and who would be proud of the composite culture, traditions and heritage of their country.

To begin with, the first of such institutions, namely, Crescent School has been started on the plot of land adjacent to the famous Zeenatul Masajid on May 16, 1977, and it has gradually earned name and status in the educational circles of Delhi.

The Memorandum of Association and the Rules and Regulations of the Crescent Education Society were first prepared and submitted in a cyclostyled form. They are now being presented here in proper printed form for the benefit of the members and well wishers of the Society.

We pray to God, Almighty, to give us vision, strength and courage to promote the objectives underlined in this Memorandum so as to serve our society and country to the best of our abilities. Amen.

New Delhi.

September 24, 1981.

It shall meet ordinarily at least once a year to review the working of the Society and the institutions run by it, to discuss and pass the annual reports and accounts, to lay down policy guidelines, and to take such other action as may be necessary and desirable in order to further the aims and objects of the Society. The date and place of the meeting shall be fixed by the President.

A special meeting of the General Council may be convened in pursuance of a decision of the General Council or on a requisition in writing signed by not less than one-third of the members on roll of the General Council.

8. Executive Board :

The strength of the Executive Board will be not less than 15 and not more than 27 members. The President, Vice Presidents, General Secretary, Joint Secretaries, Treasurer and 9 Members will be elected by the General Council. One member each will be nominated by the Aligarh Muslim University Old Boys Association, Delhi and the Delhi Waqf Board. The remaining Members will be nominated by the President from amongst people having a distinguished record as educationists or social workers.

9. Office Bearers :

The President, two Vice Presidents, one General Secretary, two Joint Secretaries and a Treasurer will be the office bearers of the Society.

The office bearers shall be elected once in three years by the General Council at a meeting convened for the purpose by a simple majority of the members present and voting and shall hold office for three years or until the next team of office bearers assumes charge whichever is later.

An office bearer may resign by submitting his resignation in writing to the President. The resignation shall take effect on acceptance by the President. The President may resign by sending his resignation to the Secretary. The resignation shall take effect on acceptance by the Executive Board.

An office bearer shall cease to hold office if a no-confidence motion is passed at a meeting of the General Council specially convened for the purpose after due notice by a majority of the membership of the General Council present and voting.

Outgoing office bearers shall be eligible for re-election up to a maximum of two consecutive terms.

10. Cessation of Membership:

- (a) All categories of membership shall cease and determine if the membership fee payable for each calendar year is not paid within ninety days of expiry of that year. The Executive Board may in its discretion readmit such a member on paying all arrears of subscriptions.
- (b) A member may terminate his membership by resignation in writing signed by the member and submitted to the President of the Society. The resignation shall take effect on acceptance by the President.
- (c) The Executive Board may expel a member from the membership of the Society if the Executive Board is satisfied that the member is acting against, or the continuance of his membership is prejudicial to, the best interest of the Society. However, before a member is expelled he shall be given in writing the grounds of the proposed action and shall also be given an opportunity of being heard. The decision to expel a member shall be made by a majority of the total membership of the Executive Board.

11. Register of Members:

There shall be a Register of members wherein the name, occupation and address of the members will be entered.

12. Duties and Powers of the Executive Board:

Subject to the directions of the General Council, the Executive Board shall be solely responsible for the proper management of the affairs of the Society. It shall be competent to:

- (a) carry out the objects and functions of the Society as set forth in the Memorandum of Association,
- (b) administer and control the affairs of the Society and exercise all the powers of the Society under these Rules and Regulations,
- (c) do all other lawful deeds, acts and things as may be conducive or expedient in the interests of the Society.

13. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by the preceding clause and other powers conferred by these presents, it is hereby expressly declared that the Executive Board shall also have the following specific powers:

- (a) to acquire for the Society by purchase, gift, exchange or otherwise any property, rights or privileges at such price and generally on such terms and conditions as it considers proper,

- (b) to pay all expenses incurred in the formation of the Society and carrying out its objects,
- (c) to secure the fulfillment of any contract or engagement entered into by the Society,
- (d) to open and operate Bank accounts and to invest and deal with any monies of the Society not immediately required for the purposes thereof, upon such securities, as are, for the time being, authorised by law, and from time to time to vary or realize such investments,
- (e) to authorize any person to enter into negotiations and contracts and to rescind and vary all such contracts,
- (f) to sell, manage, pledge, mortgage, lease, dispose of or otherwise alienate, or deal with all or any of the property of the Society from time to time on such terms as the Society may deem fit,
- (g) to make representations, carry on correspondence or issue statements in the interest and on behalf of the Society and also in matters of general educational interest,
- (h) to appoint staff, settle their conditions of service and take suitable disciplinary action against them when needed,
- (i) to organise conferences, seminars, symposia and workshops relating to education and to participate in such meetings organized by other agencies,
- (j) to constitute committees for looking after the various facets of the Society's programme and for achieving its objects.

14. President:

Ordinarily the President shall preside over all the meetings of the General Council and the Executive Board. In the absence of the President, one of the Vice Presidents in the order of precedence decided by the Executive Board shall preside. When the President and Vice Presidents are absent, one of the members shall be elected to preside.

The President shall have the powers to summon the Executive Board in an emergency and also to convene a meeting of the General Council. He shall guide the activities of the Society.

15. General Secretary :

- (a) The General Secretary shall be the principal executive officer of the Society and will be responsible for taking appropriate steps to carry out all decisions of the General Council and of the Executive Board.
- (b) He shall keep the President informed of the activities of the Society from time to time.
- (c) He shall carry on correspondence on behalf of the Society.
- (d) He shall convene in consultation with the President all meetings of the General Council and Executive Board and maintain a record of the minutes of all such meetings.
- (e) He shall be the custodian of all the records and other properties of the Society.
- (f) He shall attend to all matters of general administration in accordance with the direction of the Executive Board or the President and keep true and proper accounts of the transactions of the Society.
- (g) He shall receive and disburse cash.
- (h) He shall retain with him necessary cash required to meet the day-to-day expenses. The amount to be so retained shall be fixed by the Executive Board from time to time.
- (i) He shall remit the balance to the Treasurer to be deposited in the Bank.
- (j) He shall issue and get receipts for money received or paid.

16. Joint Secretaries :

The Joint Secretaries shall assist the General Secretary in the discharge of his duties. The Joint Secretaries shall, in the absence of the General Secretary or when the office of the General Secretary is vacant, discharge such functions of the General Secretary as are allocated to each Joint Secretary by the Executive Board or the President when the Board does not meet.

17. Duties of Treasurer :

- (i) The Treasurer shall be responsible for the safe custody of the funds of the Society.
- (ii) He may open an account or accounts, current or savings or fixed deposit, in any of the Scheduled Banks in the name of the Society.
- (iii) All withdrawals shall be by cheques signed by any two from among the General Secretary, the Treasurer and the President or any such person whom the Executive Board authorises.

- (iv) He shall keep proper accounts and records for all the transactions and place them before the Executive Board.

18. Legal Proceedings and Documents :

The General Secretary or any other person whom the Executive Board authorises shall represent the Society in all legal proceedings by or against the Society. All documents executed by or in favour of the Society shall be in the name of the General Secretary.

19. Annual Report :

The General Secretary shall, each year, prepare a report on the working and progress of the Society and place the report before the Executive Board for its approval and for being placed before the General Council at its annual meeting for acceptance.

20. Official Year :

The financial year shall be the official year of the Society.

21. Accounts and Audit :

The accounts for each year shall be audited by the auditors of the Society appointed for the purpose by the General Council and the Balance Sheet and Income and Expenditure account for the year duly certified by the auditors shall be laid before the annual meeting of the General Council.

22. Notice of the Meetings :

- (a) General Council : Notice in writing of the meeting of the General Council shall ordinarily be given to the members at least 15 days in advance.
- (b) Executive Board : Notice in writing of the meeting of the Executive Board shall ordinarily be given to all members at least 7 days in advance.
- (c) The President may in special circumstances call for an emergent meeting of the Executive Board. To such meetings the provision of a minimum notice shall not apply.

23. Quorum and Minutes :

For the meetings of the Executive Board one third of the members of the Board shall form the quorum and for the meetings of the General Council one fifth of the members on register and entitled to vote shall form the quorum. Proper minutes of all the meetings shall be maintained by the General Secretary and sent to all members not later than 21 days after the relevant meeting.

24. Sub Committees :

The Executive Board may constitute Ad Hoc Committees or Sub Committees for special purposes. The General Secretary or one of the members nominated by the Executive Board shall be the convener of the Sub Committees/Ad Hoc Committees. However the President shall have power to constitute such committees to meet unexpected needs and situations subject to ratification by the Executive Board at its meeting.

25. The income and properties of the society, in whatsoever manner derived, shall be applied solely towards the maintenance, upkeep and improvement of the Society, and for the promotion of the objects specified in the Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, profit, bonus or otherwise, howsoever, to the members of the Society; provided however that nothing herein shall prevent payment, in good faith, of remuneration to any member in return for any services actually rendered by him/her to the Society.

26. Indemnity :

Every member of the Executive Board and every other officer for the time being of the Society shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Society against all losses and expenses incurred in the discharge of his/her duties lawfully.

27. Dissolution :

Any number not less than 4/5th of the members present at the meeting convened for the purpose may determine that the Society shall be dissolved, either forthwith, or at any future time agreed upon at the said meeting.

28. If on the dissolution of the Society, there shall remain, after the satisfaction of the debts and liabilities, any amount or property whatsoever, other than impressed with any trusts, shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Society or any of them but shall be given to some other institution or Society working for the same or similar objects to be determined by the votes of not less than three-fourth of the members present in person and entitled to vote at the meeting convened for the purpose, or in default thereof, by the principal court of the area in which the office of the Society is situated.

29. Amendment to Rules and Regulations :

These Rules and Regulations may be amended by alteration, deletion, addition, substitution or otherwise by a meeting of the General Council by resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourth of such members as are present at the General Council meeting called for that purpose. Notice of the proposed amendments should be circulated to the members at least 7 days before the meeting of the General Council.

30. All the provisions of the Societies Registration Act, 1860 as applicable to the Union Territory of Delhi shall apply to this Society.

Certified to be correct copy of the Rules and Regulations of the Crescent Education Society.
